

The first path is the path of Transformation, Evolution.
 1, the Sun, is Relationship per se. It is the Ideal and the basis of Number.

The Geometry of reality is not based on axioms and postulates as in Euclid
 but rather it is based on arbitrary points in indeterminate space.

One point doesn't define much. Two points defines quite a bit. etc, etc. Parallelism is defined by four points rather than that being a postulate.

The geometry of points is based upon the single axiom of Recursion.
 As Relationship relates to Relationship, the Relationship of Relationship is...
