

Things come together at 2 Purple Combination, if they cohere they form a 6 Blue Context. If the Context lasts any length of time it's because there is a 4 Green Commitment. If the Commitment is firm, the things form a 7 Yellow Unity. If communication within the Unity is fast enough you get a 3 Orange Individual which then has 5 Red Choice. This is how a collection of individuals that can exist independently come together to form a collective organism where they are mutually interdependent and can no longer exist on their own.
